

Today you will explore the context of a tiled swimming pool. The water is shown in blue, and the border is in white. This border has 10 tiles on one side.

1. Determine the number of tiles in the border of the pool. Circle and label the drawing to show how you found the number of tiles in the border.

2. Write an arithmetic equation that shows your method for finding the number of tiles in the border of the pool.