

Below is an equation that gives the height of a beanstalk after x days.

$$y = 3(4^x)$$

1. What do you know about how this beanstalk is growing? Explain how you know these things. Describe what each part of this equation means in terms of the beanstalk context.