In the previous unit, you explored the growth of magical beanstalks. The beanstalks' heights increase by a particular factor each day. You also created an exponentially-scaled number line to model the growth of the beanstalks.

Create two equivalent expressions that both represent the height of the beanstalk 5 days after Day 2. Create a number line to represent these expressions.

$$\longleftrightarrow$$