

Estimate the openness of the angles below using degrees or a measure of your choosing. You may want to use pipe cleaners or patty paper to help you do this.

