

1. Approximate how much of a turn Mary and Claire would make if they started by facing point A and then rotated counterclockwise until they faced points B, C, D, and E.

2. Create drawings that represent the rotations the student in the applet makes.