1. Suppose you live in Michigan and you have a friend who lives in the Caribbean, nearer to the Earth's equator. As the earth completes a full rotation, you trace out a circle with a radius length of about 2000 miles. The radius length for your friend is about 4000 miles. How many degrees will you and your friend travel after traveling 1000 miles?